LIFESTYLE STANDARDS

Appalachian Bible College has an ongoing commitment to Christian living and behavior. All students are governed by a set of rules set forth in ABC's student handbook, The Servant's Staff. Some rules reflect our Biblical convictions; others reflect institutional preferences. To gain acceptance to ABC and maintain student status, you must agree to abide by these standards of conduct. Specifically, you must agree to abstain from use of illegal drugs; the use of tobacco or liquor in any form; attendance at local movie theaters; the viewing of unwholesome literature, videos, or television programs; listening to non-permissible music; gambling; immoral behavior; unethical conduct; and agree to abide by other standards as stated in The Servant's Staff.

My signature indicates that the information I have provided is complete and true, that I have no disagreement with ABC's doctrinal statement, and I am committed to abide by the standards set forth in the Servant's Staff while a student at Appalachian Bible College.
